News from the .com

In case you haven't noticed, Danny Hammers has been hammering away at our web site and has built a wonderful presence for our club on the internet.

So far, three folks have joined our club using the membership form on the web: two from other countries so we are officially an 'international' steel guitar club!

Many of you might remember John Davis who visited our club last year all the way from England.

And Clyde also received a membership from Allen Fralick in Toronto, Canada.

And Richard Douthitt from our own backyard in Coxs Creek has joined.

We proudly welcome these new members to our steel guitar club!
